A WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT

From Adalis De La Nuez

Last summer my family visited Devil's Den Spring. It's an underground spring inside a dry cave. Now, while the name isn't favorable, the view certainly was. Such a beautiful, peaceful place but it didn't start that way... You see, it is originally a sinkhole! I don't know what comes to mind when you think sinkhole, but my first thought isn't this beautiful cave. In fact, it's often thought of as a nuisance... but here we see that isn't always the case. A delightful spring from a sinkhole.

Sometimes, that's how God works in our lives. Circumstances in your life look ugly and maybe you're drowning in your own personal sinkhole, but God can take that and make it beautiful. Trust Him. Wait on Him. And as you are still in His presence, experience Him.

"He has made everything beautiful in its time." Ecclesiastes 3:11

"I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living! Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!" Psalm 27:13-14

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths." Proverbs 3:5-6

"Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to you, and therefore He exalts Himself to show mercy to you. For the LORD is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for Him." Isaiah 30:18

"But they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint." Isaiah 40:31

THE POET'S CORNER

Allergies

You clean out your attic
Inhale microscopic cells that were
And exhale the sickness inside
Bless you

He wipes your nose
Invites you to the living room for drinks
So you'll never thirst again
Bless Him

He walks leaving pieces
Of himself behind
Unaware of what he holds inside
Bless him

She scrubs the dead skin
Off self-conscious body
A remnant of who she was yesterday
Bless her

The unknowing have allergies
To praying hands
Holding Claritin in their grasp
Bless them

We claim difference
And validation for our existence
When we're bound together by allergens
Bless us

There is testimony in dust
Like the ground sneezed
When God created human beings
Bless me
